

Quadrangle 1987
LaGrange College
LaGrange, Georgia

1987 Quadrangle Dedication

Exemplifying the 1987 Quadrangle's theme, "LC the Road to Success", we present Mrs. Julia Traylor Dyar, Director of the Office of Institutional Relations. Her steps on the Road to Success started off when she was born on May 2, 1925, in LaGrange, Georgia, to James Edward Traylor and Gladys Marchman (both deceased). In the year of 1943 after she had graduated from Greensboro High School in 1942 she became a freshman at LaGrange College. From 1943 to 1946 Mrs. Dyar was one of many young women who made up the backbone of L.C. with their charm, wisdom, and spirit. Some of her many accomplishments while at L.C. were: Delta Phi Delta, serving as its president when she was a senior. She was elected "Miss Freshman," was chosen for OF and was freshman representative to the Student Council, she was sophomore representative to the Council, its secretary as a junior and senior vice-president. She was a member of the BSU, being program chairman her junior year and president her senior year. She was secretary of her class when she was a junior. As a freshman she was treasurer of the Junior Glee Club. She was a member of the Choral Club when she was a sophomore and of the Chapel Choir and Concert Choir her last two years. She was treasurer of the Concert Choir her last two years. She was a member of the L Club for three years and a member of the Dance Club for two. She was a member of the IRC, being its secretary and treasurer her last year. As a junior she was assistant advertising manager of the QUADRANGLE. She was assistant advertising manager of the Scroll as a sophomore and business manager her last two years. She was chosen as a Superlative and elected to "Who's Who" her senior year. After she had completed her four years at L.C. she married in 1948 to the late Hubert L. Dyar. Her and her husband bought a small paper and she served as associate editor and columnist for their weekly newspaper, The Royston (Ga.) Record. For seven years she was a correspondent for the Atlanta Constitution. During this period she also wrote feature stories and a Sunday column for the Anderson (S.C.) Independent. In 1958 Mrs. Dyar became assistant manager of Georgia Press Association, she served in this position until February, 1972, when she was named Acting Manager. She was named executive manager and corporate secretary in November, 1972, a position she held until she accepted the L.C. position in 1978. She was also the Editor, Editor's Forum, official publication, for the GPA from 1962 to 1978.

Some of her activities and memberships besides all her hard work are: Theta Sigma Phi (now Women in Communications) Corr. Ssect. 1966; Second Vice President, 1967; First Vice President, 1968; Member 1965-until; Atlanta Advertising Club, 1962-78; American Society of Association Executives, 1975-78; Georgia Society of Association Executives, 1972-78; Member, Board of Directors, Georgia Electrification Council, 1972-78; Ocfuskee Historical Society, 1973-until; Vice-President, 1980-82; Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation, 1980-until; National Trust for Historical Preservation, 1980-until; Council for Advancement and Support of Education, 1978-until; West Georgia Genealogical Society, 1978-until; Chattahoochee Valley Art Association, 1978-until; Member, Georgia 4-H Advisory Committee, 1978-until; First Baptist Church, LaGrange, Democrat; and foremost Women in Communications, 1970-until. This is just a small example of the outstanding work this lady does.

One of her closest co-workers and companion, Mrs. Mae Towns, was quoted as saying "You know the phrase 'Man of all seasons'? I call her 'the Woman of all seasons' because anything you'll ask her to do, she'll do it." She was further quoted as saying, "College Students, nieces and nephews are her children, for she has more sympathy, empathy, compassion for them while being a dedicated Christian — it radiates and shows in her life." To further commend her outstanding accomplishments, it was established on October 30, 1986, by Allen Stewart, President of SGA, that "For Mrs. Julia Dyar's outstanding service to the students and staff of LaGrange College, for giving of her time and talents beyond the call of duty, for taking the time and risks of knowing students personally, and for her genuine capacity of caring; We the students of LaGrange College, hereby declare October 30 as Julia Dyar Appreciation Day." Now we the QUADRANGLE Staff and the 1987 Graduating Senior Class wish to further show our gratitude and appreciation for Mrs. Julia Dyar by dedication of this years QUADRANGLE.

HOMECOM

With the bold theme "L.C. Is American Made" Homecoming began with rain and mishap. But LaGrange students refused to have dampened spirits. With the simple words, "We're not going to let it rain on our parade," President Walter Murphy set the tone of patience and perseverance.

The opening event was the parade. The rain was heavy as cars lined up. The cars were parked tightly together. In the midst of the excitement an intoxicated driver on Vernon Street disregarded an officer and hit a parked car causing a chain accident. Three cars were damaged and a student was injured.

As the confusion cleared, the parade proceeded to the Square and back to the campus. Bands, floats and cars were quite a sight as traffic was interrupted in LaGrange. The first place float winner was Kappa Delta, Pi Kappa Phi was second, and Alpha Omicron Pi was third. In the competition for decorated cars Kappa Delta again was the winner, Phi Mu was second and Students in Free Enterprise placed third.

Later that evening the traditional bonfire was cancelled due to the rain and spirit rally was held in the Gym. Pi Kappa Phi was the winner of the Spirit competition.

On Friday banners were hung from Henry Hall proclaiming this year's themes. Before the banners became soaked judges declared the Scroll first place winner. Pi Kappa Phi and Alpha Omicron Pi won second and third respectively.

Saturday morning a student revue was held on the Quad. Class reunions were in progress. A luncheon was served and formal meeting held.

The big event of the day was the basketball game with LC vs Brewton Parker Junior College. The game ended in a loss, but it gave students the excitement of seeing the potential that our team had. Following the game the Homecoming Court was presented.

The last official SGA event for Homecoming was the dance, where the band "Seventh Wonder" gave a wonderful performance.

The 1986 Homecoming Queen and her court added the finishing touch to a wonderful Homecoming week. Miss Christi Howard a freshman from Fayetteville, was named Queen. She is pictured here with her court left to right, Julie Roberts, Second runner-up; Tammy Rosso, maid of honor; Christi Howard; Vanessa Edison, first runner-up; April Love, third runner-up; and Cindy Vaughan, "Miss Congeniality".

This year's annual Quadrangle Dance was the best ever! The Theme for the semi-formal dance was "The Love Boat". The Student Government Officers served as the crew for the evening. The "Love Boat" departed from the port of LaGrange via the Ramada Inn, with a destination of a magical evening. Date of departure was Friday, February 13.

The entertainment was provided by the exciting Malemen, a hot band that plays a variety of music, great for dancing the night away. The Malemen perform at colleges everywhere, including sorority/fraternity formals. There was also a photographer provided from Village Photographers of Auburn, Alabama.

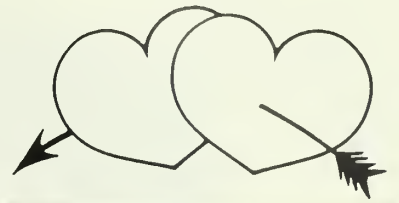

There was a romantic atmosphere, great music, fancy hors d'oeuvres and the presentation of the beautiful Quadrangle Court; all this, free of charge to L.C. students. The Quadrangle Court consisted of 3 freshmen, 3 sophomores, 3 juniors, 2 senior ladies, and one senior Quadrangle Queen, all chosen by popular vote of the student body.

This Quadrangle dance was provided by your student activities fee by your S.G.A. and solely for your enjoyment. Attire for the evening was anything from a nice Sunday Dress to a long dress for the ladies; and a sport coat/slacks outfit to a tux for the gentlemen.

Black History Celebration LC

Black History.

During black history month Pi Tau Chapter Alpha Phi Alpha and the Association of Black Collegians at LaGrange College sponsored a week of activities. A program was held in the chapel with Mr. Oliver Greene, Principal of LaGrange Boys Junior College, as guest speaker. A video of the King celebration at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta was shown on the big screen television in the chapel. There were three showings at 10 A.M., 2P.M., and 4P.M. with the Association of Black Collegians choir providing music for the final showing. Black ribbons were pinned on those who attended, to symbolize belief in the dream of Dr.

Miss Troup County Pageant

LaGrange College was well represented this year in Miss Troup County Pageant. There were six lovely and talented contestants from the Hill. Sheryl Stallings, sponsored by the LaGrange Junior Women's Club was named as first runner-up. This is quite an honor because if anything should prohibit the winner from fulfilling her duties, the first runner-up would assume the title. Miss Stallings was also voted "Miss Congeniality" by the other contestants. She vocally performed "Come in from the Rain."

Second runner-up was Julie Ann Williams, who was sponsored by the Phi Mu Fraternity. She performed a ballet dance to the popular song "The Greatest Love of All."

Melody Carole Terry, sponsored by Kappa Delta Sorority was named as fourth runner-up. She sang "Being Alive" from the Broadway musical "Company."

Codrey Lee Tinsley, sponsored by Phi Mu Fraternity; Greer Kristina Gaston, sponsored by Headlines Salon; and Leah Cain Coleman each performed very well. LaGrange College should be honored to have so many talented ladies.

The pageant was sponsored by LC's own Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Brad White, current president, reported that the annual pageant was a complete success.

Fran Howard, who attends Lee College, was crowned Miss Troup County for 1987. Miss Howard was a student at LC during the fall quarter.

The Teen Challenge Choir

LaGrange College was honored Winter Quarter on Friday the 13th, 1987, to hear the fantastic and inspiring voices of "The Teen Challenge Choir".

Wellness For Life

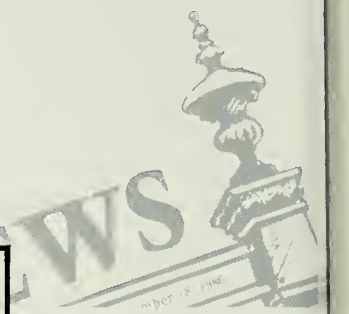

WELLNESS FOR LIFE is more than a slogan for the newly formed Campus Wellness Committee. It is their goal. The committee is working to increase the quality of life for students, faculty, and staff by helping people stay well. That puts LaGrange College on the leading edge of a wellness movement that is spreading nationwide.

Wellness is a positive approach to living — an approach that emphasizes the whole person. Wellness means adopting lifestyles that promote physical, mental, social and spiritual well-being. Today people want to be more than alive or just not sick. They want to experience a vitality that helps them enjoy life to the fullest — to live creatively. That's what wellness and the CWC (Campus Wellness Committee) is all about. The CWC sponsored campus-wide campaigns relating to different facets of wellness. The first major campaign (called "Wellness is a Life Affair") was in the early spring and emphasized health assessment.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

This year LaGrange College for the first time in several years, had an outstanding and very productive Student Government Association (SGA). The SGA's outstanding performance was due to the leadership of Allen Stewart who was backed by a fantastic line of officers; Allyson Langley, Women's Vice-president; Ken Cline, Treasurer; Camille Scott, Secretary; and (a confusing issue) Keith Whitener (Fall Quarter), Alan Trainer (Winter Quarter), and Hal Turner (Spring Quarter) for Men's Vice-president. It was not just these seven people who made SGA a success it was also an active Legislative Council who helped to make the 1986-1987 school year full of memories.

In fun and competition Greek organizations teamed up for Greek Week '87; Kappa Sigma with Phi Mu. Pi Kappa Phi with Alpha Omicron Pi and Delta Tau Delta with Kappa Delta. Lori Johnson and Shawn Zwilling organized the weeks activities, which started with three car-washes on Tuesday.

Kappa Sigma and Phi Mu raised the most money with more than eighty dollars, Pi Kappa Phi and Alpha Omicron Pi, also with more than eighty dollars came next, with Delta Tau Delta and Kappa Delta next.

All donations received for the carwashes went to LaGrange Personal Aid. Softball games were played Wednesday and Thursday with five male and five female players making up each team. On Wednesday, the Kappa Sigma and Phi Mu team was eliminated from competition. Thursday the Delta Tau Delta and Kappa Delta team defeated the Pi Kappa Phi and Alpha Omicron Pi team to win the tournament.

Wednesday's activities also included a Panhellenic Sing on the patio and a tacky tie and hat social at the Kappa Sigma fraternity house.

A day at the lake was the theme for Friday's activities. Greeks gathered at West Point Lake for sun, games, bar-b-que, canoeing and swimming, for those who had problems with canoes. During dinner awards were given; Camille Scott received the Miss Greek award and Alan Trainer received the Mr. Greek award. These awards are voted on by all Greeks. The All Greek award is given each year, to the team who has received the most points during the week. Points are given for first, second and third places in the carwashes, softball and Greek games. This year's winner was the Kappa Sigma and Phi Mu team.

Friday evening ended the week's festivities with all three fraternity houses opened for mixers.

"Snow? Wh

Can you believe it?! Not once, but twice during this school year La-Grange College was briefly covered in snow. Fortunately for the record, some brave souls decided to venture out and take some pictures of LC students having a little fun in the slush of '87.

THE Producers

Run For Your Life

"The Producers" (L to R) Bryan Holmes (drums & Famous (keyboards)), Van Temple (lead guitar & vocals), Tim Smith (bass & vocals), Wayne (vocals).

"The Producers" rocked L.C. in the gym on Thursday, March the 26th, 1987 to start the opening quarter off with a bang.

"The Producers" are a local-to-the-south band that plays a variety of rock music that reaches from driving rock to introspective ballads. Formed in 1980, the band has performed some 200 live shows a year, spanning North America, released in 1981 (self-titled) includes such hits as "What's He Got", "Love Lucy", and "Certain Kinda Girl". In 1982, they released their second album "You Make The Heat" with its hit single "She Shelia" earning them even more fame.

This increasing popularity brought The Producers an invitation to perform at the televised First Annual MTV New Years Eve Ball in 1983.

With this experience under their belt, The Producers were featured in a national ad campaign (radio) for the Miller Brewing Company for Miller Beer.

Their latest album, "Run For Your Life", contains a set of exciting singles that will fit everyone's tastes.

"The Producers" were a definite hit at LaGrange College which helped to start off a very hot and fun filled Spring Quarter on the hill.

"The Creek", formerly "Sugarcreek", a Charlotte-based rock band was one of the hottest ideas the L.C. S.G.A. ever had. "The Creek" was the opening band for "The Producers" for the beginning of a wild, hot, long Spring Quarter.

"The Creek" mesmerized the L.C. Student Body with their sizzling, energetic, and electrifying performance surprising everyone present that such a quality and professional sound of the 80's Rock could come from this group.

"The Creek" definitely proved it was not some country-bluegrass band from North Carolina, but a GREAT semi-hard-rocking band that has a sound similar to Styx, Asia, Guiffria, Kansas, or Journey.

Imagine how such a group could capture national attention by appearing on the country's largest televised talent show, Star Search, Garner International attention by producing the best selling imported album in England, be included on the Miller American Rock Newtwork compilation album, and yet they linger on the verge of gaining the national recognition that they seek and deserve.

The fantastic band is comprised of five multi-talented musicians. Lead singer Tim Clark; Jerry West, guitar; Mike Barber, bass; Lynn Samples, drums; and Rick Lee, keyboards.

LaGrange College will truly remember this fantastic band for a long time.

A.B.C.

wesley

Wesley Fellowship

Wesley Fellowship is a Christian organization affiliated with the United Methodist Church, yet is open to students of all denominations and beliefs. Anyone in the LaGrange College community is invited to take part in Wesley and its programs. Our purposes can best be summed up in four words — learning, loving, reaching, and serving.

Wesley has its regular meeting time each Monday night, 7:30 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom. Special speakers have included various ministers from around Georgia, a speaker from the Salvation Army, Bill Matthews (clown ministry-UGA), Jimmy Moor (Director of Camp Glisson), Pierce Norman (United Methodist Evangelist), and the Christian band Horizon from West Georgia College. Other Monday night programs have included fellowship and sharing times, student programs, an old-fashioned Methodist Love Feast, and two programs at Dr. Murphy's home.

Wesley, however, also participates in and sponsors many other campus activities, some of which include: Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF, Campuswide Mission Dances, a weekly Vesper Service, Prayer Breakfasts, small "Family" Groups for fellowship and growth, numerous outings and retreats, Homecoming Events, May Day Step-Singing Competition, an active participation in the SGA, and a monthly newsletter.

Through Winter quarter 1987, this yer's officers are: Brian Germano, president; Ronny Cook, vice-president; Michele Foster, secretary; Lee Schuh, treasurer; and Linda Hueseman, Newsletter Editor.

Wesley is an organization that strives to meet the needs of students — and that means you. We are not a perfect organization, but we are striving to make at difference at L.C. by showing Christ's love in action.

Chi Rho Alpha

Chi Rho Alpha is a Christian organization which meets on Wednesday nights at 8:00 in the LaFayette Room. Debbie Chandler is the president and Lynn McCord is the vice-president. This is the second year Chi Rho Alpha has been in existence at LaGrange College.

We plan many activities with BSU and the Wesley Fellowship. Some activities are bonfires and cookouts at the lake, and trips to Atlanta and Stone Mountain. We also bring in guest speakers such as Ron Ralston of Campus Crusade International and Pastor Duane Swilley of Chapel Hill Harvester Church in Decatur, Georgia.

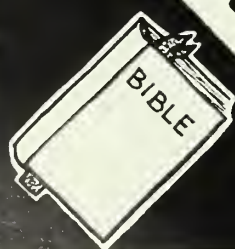

Our purpose is to communicate and demonstrate the gospel of the Kingdom as a witness on college campuses throughout the nation. (Matt. 24:14) We believe Christianity is a lifestyle. We also believe that Jesus Christ is the way, the truth and the life, and no one comes to the Father but through Him. (John 14:6) By Jesus living in us, ruling our lives, others can see Christianity as a lifestyle. God's love is the most powerful force there is and our goal is to love others as Christ does and not to view them with condemnation.

Jesus said, "If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me." We do not look for the praises of men, but of God. Our sole purpose is to lift Him up!

The church today is wounded by fellow brothers striving in competition against one another. We need to recognize the enemy and it is not our brothers in Christ. We make a strong effort to be a uniting force among Christian organizations on campus, and not a dividing factor. (I Corinth. 12:25-26)

Psychology Honor Society

The purpose of the Psychology Honor Society is to honor outstanding students who have done work in psychology; to promote the study of psychology among students at LaGrange College; and to encourage students to continue their interest in this field.

Membership is comprised of students who have completed at least 15 quarter hours of Psychology with a minimum grade point average of 3.0. Members must also maintain an overall grade point average of 3.0.

New members are inducted into the Honor Society each year during the fall quarter. The organization inducted the following new members during a ceremony held during fall quarter 1986: Ann Cook, Beth Bauer, Marsha Stick, Lewis Spradlin Jr., Anne Marrocco, Edward Wood, and Melissa McDonald. Present officers are: Julia Anglin, president; Cindy Patton, vice-president; Lynn McCord, secretary; and Ellen Henderson, treasurer. We are very fortunate to have as our advisor Dr. Charles Kraemer, whose leadership, guidance, and support encourages each of us to do our best.

This year our organization has chosen two very special projects which we hope will serve as teaching aids to the professors in the Psychology Department and also stimulate the imaginations of their students. The Society is currently working on three events aimed at raising funds to purchase a tachistoscope and a projector. The tachistoscope projects visual displays used to test perception. The projector will be used to show students film strips aimed at broadening their understanding of the field of psychology.

The Scroll

The Scroll is the magazine of creative arts at LaGrange College. It has a long tradition of provocative literature and art work that dates back to 1933. In keeping with this tradition, this year's Scroll staff worked hard, looking for submissions from outside the college community as well as from LaGrange College students. They received photographs, poetry, fiction, essays and reminiscences and combined these for what would become this year's Scroll. Entries came from students, LaGrange residents, Georgians, and people all over the country. The staff also worked hard selling advertisement space to support their venture.

The Editor of this year's Scroll was April Love. Associate Editors were Chip Duffey, Joyce Johnson, Laraine Lepingwell, Verona Maddox, Gwen Noles, and Mike Patton. A prize was awarded for best art work and for best piece of writing.

Hilltop News

The Hilltop News has had a very exciting year. We published two issues per quarter which offered a variety of opinions and features.

This year's staff included Camille Scott, Editor; Jack Bagley, Assistant Editor; Phillip Anglin, Business Manager, Bran Peacock, Cartoon Artist; Tina Gross, Editorial Cartoonist and reporter; and other contributing reporters: Hal Turner, Michael Dombrosky, Teresa Hay, Amy Becham, Keith

Heinze, David Mc-

Carthy; darkroom assistants: Allen Stewart, Renee Rainey, and Walker Scott. We have also included, in our issues, guest columnists from the student body, faculty, and staff.

The Hilltop News has had great support from local businesses who offer student discounts at their establishments through coupons in the paper.

We are also fortunate enough to have the support of the Office of Institutional Relations as our sponsor. Mrs. Dyar and Mrs. Towns have made our newspaper possible with their hard work and dedication to the staff.

As the years go on, it is our hope that students will become more actively involved in student publications. The newspaper is a great way to share opinions, fight for a cause, and strengthen the unity of the student body. The newspaper is an important part of everyone's college days, as each issue saved will hold many memories.

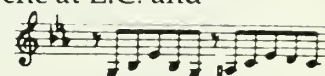

Choralaire

Upon looking closely at the choralaire one will find a myriad of backgrounds, majors, and interests. Actually the group is a chorus which can be taken as a class for which the student can receive one hour credit.

Choralaire sing both secular and sacred music at many campus events and at area clubs and churches.

Within the group, students make lifelong friendships, find their special niche at L.C. and have great fun singing together.

LC Band

The LaGrange College Band is made up of students who have had previous experiences in playing an instrument and who wish to continue instrumental study. The program includes the study of both secular and sacred music.

The students perform in concerts, at basketball games and other college functions. The band, under the direction of Mr. Emory Drinkard, enjoys the group activity of rehearsing together and performing as often as possible to boost L.C. programs.

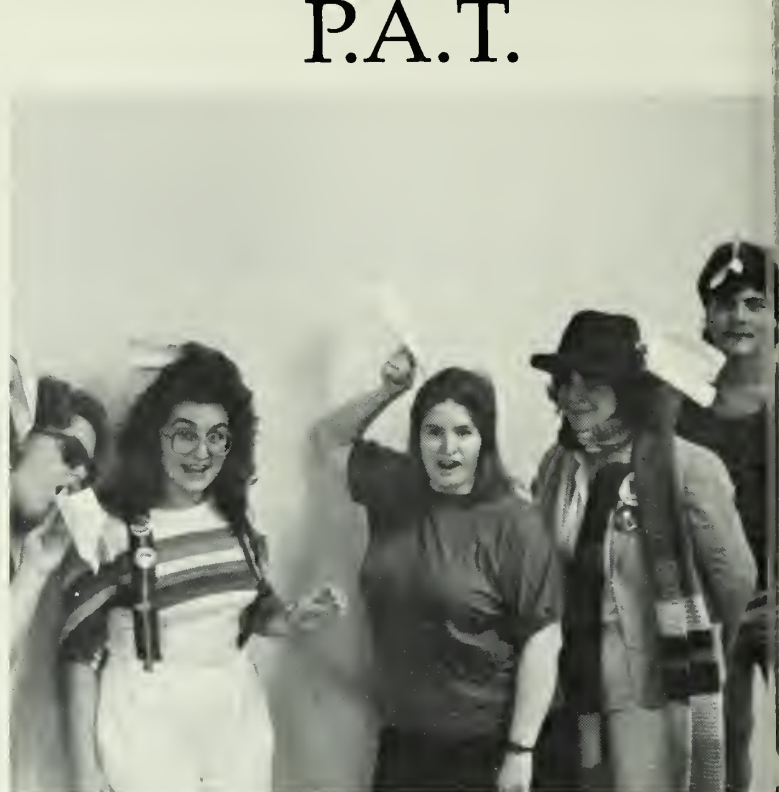

PAPER AIRPLANE TEAM

The Paper Airplane Team (PAT) had a very successful first year. Members learned the differences among the many varieties of planes such as standard and delta-wing, and how to make these cruisers, fighters or demonstration models.

Competition proved to be tough as the team pulled together to have a great first season, ending in a 7-4-1 record. The most spectacular contest was between our school and South Georgia College when the teams had to go into a vicious tie-breaker in the Aerial Maneuvers category resulting in our 15-14 victory.

"Our team did an outstanding job and I'm proud of them," commented the illustrious team's Captain, Jack Bagley. "Hopefully next year we will have enough members to have two teams — "A" — Advanced and "B" — Beginning levels. Someday I hope we can rise to the ultimate "D" — Destroyer and "A+" — Armageddon plus levels."

Who's Not Who

There's Who's Who, and then there's Who's Not. Members are selected through discreet underground publications for their contributions (or lack of) to the campus community surrounding them. Members represent the college in such ostentatious events as roach racing, underwater basket weaving, and gargling efferdent.

Among the many members are: Katherine "Dr. Who-Who's Not Who" Beetschen, Valerie "?" Mills, Marci "The Merciless" Bleyaert, Mike "Hurt Me" Brunck; Tina "Destroyer" Gross; Joyce "Never Scene" Johnson; Jack "Captain" Bagley; Melissa Bagley.

Miler Club

During the 1986-1987 school year LaGrange College became health conscious by doing a lot of things to promote a healthier student and a healthier LaGrange College Student-body on the Hill.

One such group was the Miler Club. This was a group of students and faculty who would go out on their own time and record the amount of miles they could walk or jog. All of the miles were totaled to see if they could come up with the same amount of miles it would take to walk from LaGrange, Georgia to Miami, Florida. The Miler group made it and each member earned a T-shirt.

A volunteer group of coed supporters, the LaGrange College Soccer Sweethearts, attended all home games of the men's varsity soccer team, ran the score clock, helped keep the ball in play, and offered general assistance to coaches and officials. The purpose of Campus Recreation and Intramural Sports is "to provide wholesome play, to foster a spirit of good sportsmanship, and to promote the development of a sound mind in a sound body." To help this purpose, tournaments in many different sports are held throughout the year.

Events scheduled for both men and women include volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis, badminton, bowling, "Pickle Ball," and the Domino's Dash. In addition, men competed in flag football, while co-ed teams also participated in volleyball and softball tournaments. Competition in all these events are open to all students, faculty, and staff at LC. Participation Awards were presented to the men's and women's organizations who had the greatest number of participants and who earned the most points during the year. In addition, male and female "Athletes of the Year" were selected.

This year, for the first time, a H-O-R-S-E contest and a Super Hoops contest were held. The Super Hoops was sponsored by Schick and winners in both the men's and women's divisions were eligible to compete at a regional tournament in March. Congratulations to the following winner; Dana Bruengraff, Amanda Cox, Cathy Cushing, and Ann George (Women's Division) and Jamie Davis, Scotty Quinn, Jeff Stidham, and Jon Wright (Men's Division).

Student leadership for Campus Intramural Sports was provided by Jenny Jack and Scott Bradbury with assistance from fraternity, sorority, and independent intramural representatives.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Guardian of our days;
For thy spirit never failing
We will sing thy praise.
High Aloft we hold thy banner.
Ever loyal true;
And to thee, our Alma Mater,
We our pledge renew.

In the might groves of learning
Wisdom's path we've sought.
High upon thy lofty hilltop
Visions have been wrought.

From our hearts we sing the chorus
Time shall never change.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail to thee, LaGrange.

Successful Alumni of

Since 1831 when LaGrange College first started, the students who have graduated from our school have gone on to become the best in the pursuit of their careers. Here are a few words of wisdom they wish to pass on to us, in the hope that they will endear us to a brighter future. 1. Neal Morgan 2. Marilyn Botkin 3. Terry Kay 4. Stuart Clay 5. Elizabeth Harris 6. Carolyn Bernard.

Neal Morgan ... To realize the true value of one's education and the realization that the dedication to strive for the highest achievements both socially and in academics will be strong considerations for the career and future they choose.

Marilyn Botkin ... My advice to today's students would be to work hard at getting a good basic, liberal education.

Terry Kay ... Dream. Try. Learn. Then dream again.

Stuart Clay ... I challenge any LC person to a tennis match for a case of anything.

Elizabeth Harris ... First, seek God's will for your life and recognize in Jesus Christ. He gave us the perfect pattern for us to seek to imitate. While remembering nothing that is worth anything ever comes easy there is a price to be paid.

Carolyn Bernard ... Take your education seriously and enjoy your college days — the friends you make here will be your best friends forever. After graduation when you commence your first job, work hard, be honest, take pride in your work and strive for excellence.

Andrew Owen ... Students should take advantage of personal contact with their professors. Although such sessions may not always be "learning situations", the challenge of such encounters to communicate appropriately is invaluable preparation for whatever field of endeavor is pursued.

Jeannette Little ... Choose a field you enjoy and go with it — to plan a career based on any other consideration results in frustration.

... LaGrange College

1. Maone Dodson, 2. Edith Foster, 3. Blanche Farley, 4. Bettie Sellers, 5. Judy Greer

Malone Dodson ... Enjoy the years at LaGrange College. The friends you make on the "hill" will be a source of strength for years to come. Don't rush too fast — stop, smell the roses, look and discover God's creation. Find ways to be involved in local churches and in the community.

Edith Foster ... Apply yourselves to the best of your ability. Try to "find" yourselves. Keep your faith in God, in yourselves, your future.

Blanche Farley ... Follow your own instincts. Be the person you have to be.

Bettie Sellers ... That a college education is only the beginning of knowledge — a door to knowing which way the road lies — and the road is only a good one for as long as we continue to learn. This I Believe.

Judy Greer ... Take advantage of every opportunity available to you, especially those which may not be of particular interest to you at this moment. (Ex: lectures, concerts, seminars, athletic events, travel) College is more than classes although they are essential. Become disciplined, but do not take yourselves too seriously! Go for it!

Mark Johnson ... I'm sorry to be the one to break this to you, but the diploma is just a ticket of admission. After graduation is when the hard stuff starts. You will have success and failures, triumphs and tragedies. Stay alert, don't give up, take your vitamins and never lose your sense of humor. If you're wise and have taken advantage of the lessons LaGrange can teach, you're now prepared for a fascinating experience. God bless you.

GENNADIY ZAKHAROV

NICHOLAS DANILOFF

President Ronald Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev met in Reykjavik, Iceland, for a two-day summit in October to discuss arms control. The two leaders reached an impasse on testing of the U.S. Star Wars weaponry.

Gennadiy Zakharov, a Soviet U.N. employee was arrested on a subway platform in New York City and charged with spying. A week later American journalist Nicholas S. Daniloff was arrested on the streets of Moscow and accused of spying on the Soviet Union. Both men were released within weeks and the entire affair set the stage for a superpower Summit meeting in Iceland.

The Contra Connection: With military aid cut off by Congress the Nicaraguan rebels turned to other sources. Nearly $23 million was available in excess profits from the Iran arms deals, the Tower panel found. The four men involved were: John Poindexter; Col. Oliver North; Donald Regan; and the late William Casey.

The President signed into law in October the broadest tax overhaul in a generation. The bill cut taxes for most workers while paring some prized deductions and boosting the tax burden on corporations. Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, and Illinois Democrat headed the House Tax overhaul delegation and Sen. Bob Packwood, an Oregon Republican headed the delegation from the House.

Former Sen. Baker to Succeed Regan at White House. President Reagan, fighting to restore order at the White House and salvage his own reputation, has chosen former Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr. to replace chief of Staff Donald T. Regan who resigned under fire Feb. 27. The choice was hailed on Capitol Hill where key lawmakers said Baker was ideally suited to repair battered White House relations with Congress.

After 20 years of ruling without serious challenge, Philippine president Ferdinand E. Marcos was forced from office amid charges of corruption and scandal. The new president, Corazon Aquino was faced with political and economic turmoil.

Every year as the Fourth of July approaches America remembers the anniversary of its freedom. In 1986, however, Americans celebrated a different kind of liberty. It marked the 100th birthday of the statue of Liberty and six million people gathered in New York to enjoy the festivities. Especially in New York's Manhattan Island where the party was centered. Some of the events were a festival of songs, celebrities and fireworks honoring the great lady's first 100 years.

They call it "crack" on the east coast and "nock" on the west coast. No matter what you call it, crack is the newest, purest and most addictive form of cocaine. But unlike cocaine, crack is smoked. It provides the user with such an intense 5 to 10 minute high even first time users crave their next hit. Addiction can result within a matter of weeks.

A drought spread throughout the Southeast during 1986. It was the worst dry spell on record. At the peak of the drought crops wilted from southern Pennsylvania all the way into northern Florida. Even after some rain, many farmers in the Carolinas, Georgia, Tennessee and Virginia were on the brink of ruin.

In closing, we see that Success is brought about through the growth we experience in different types of organizations and social groups to allow us to express ourselves freely. This is how L.C. leads us down the Road of Success, by her freedom to allow us to be our own person. To LaGrange College we say a special warm-hearted THANK-YOU for all she has done!

I CRIED A DIFFERENT STORY

By Tim Ellis

I cried a different story
to hear your voice again
And the Birds flew across my imagination
to a field that was not sane.
A winged tear wrapped 'round
my cheek
Searching for a playground of a different richness
and a son of a different beat.
As I plucked a flower from the fruit of thought
I heard a whispering of mourning —
and a sunrise was bought.
But I saw you again
laughing on a rainbow.
As if a cloud would carry you away
to another heart you know.
Again I cried
a different story
And woke up next to you this faithful morning.

THE SCENE

by Sharon Diane Guida

A certain scene wanted to postpone itself,
Hold back, lay low and reform itself,
So nobody'd have a change of heart,
No more revisions.

The scene reassessed its past, fixated
Like a reason about to lose its why,

Or a pass, its nerve,
It paused. It foreshadowed itself,
It couldn't help but set itself up.

It was:

Reared on nervouso trysts,
Kidnapped from office hours,
Spoon-fed on Saturday Park rendezvous,
Tempted into serious luncheon cafes,
Rebelling against the mounting expectations,
Crying its eyes out to the night
Holding out for a climax
Pleading mornings for another point of view
Reconciling midday into some context.
Analyzing, analyzing its mind out of its fictions.

But diminished to the irony that it ever was
In the first place, first person.

And bored with the tingle of discretions.

The loneliness of prayer,

It lies around; it skirts the issue.

It can't get ahead

It can't make a living

Out of unearned emotions.

Rambling, it wanders

Into a walk-up on Broadway and 67th,

By some small twist of fate,

It finds its point in a period —

And the man takes his hat and the next flight out

And the woman turns on her heel to her wondering family

Instep, quietly bleeding down the stairs

And the baby is aborted via a messy system

That slugs itself out

Somewhere on the Jersey shore

Or therabouts.

PERFORMING

By April Love

Sit down beside me

here on the blanket

and reach down

deeper into your bag of pasts

and squeeze out a trick for me

so that I can see you and touch you

and remember you

here with me now

and then without me.

REMEMBRANCE

By Emily Paxton McClurg

Soft summer nights of forty years ago,
Small-town South, you were our world.
We knew not that any other place existed.
For you were everything we needed in that simple time.
You were love and security and a pat on the back when needed.

You were golden lazy days at the community swimming pool
And leisurely mornings spent under the pecan trees stringing beans or peeling peaches.

You were children playing under the street light at night
While neighbors visited each other on front porches
Swinging gently and catching a bit of breeze
For there were no air conditioners or televisions to keep people inside and isolated.

They would chat, and listen indulgently to the cries of
"Red Light" and "May I" or perhaps "Bom-bom-bom."

Those long-ago children are no more, but as adults they must once in a while remember

As they lead their harried lives, trying to keep pace with today.
They remember, and they long briefly to hear their own children
Shouting and playing under the street light in the hot summer nights
While planting their roots deeply in your soil.
So as to sustain them in the years to come, wherever they may go.

REVEALING ME

By April Love

When you sit with me and feel nothing
and say nothing
and think nothing
and when you sit with me
and don't even look at me
I feel naked and alone and I feel exposed
And there is no pain
like the pain
of a revelation ignored.

"CAT WOMAN OF THE MARDI GRAS"

By Tim Taunton

Dear J. S. Students and Faculty,

I wish to give my profound apology for a slightly late and under par yearbook. I am just grateful that I was allowed the opportunity to serve as the 1986-87 Quadrangle Editor and I hope everyone is satisfied on what the staff and I have achieved despite the numerous obstacles we had along the way.

I, also, wish to give a Special Thank-You to some fantastic people who gave me a lot of help: Chalton Astew;
Gyonne Mills; Felia Dyar; Mae Toms;
Darlene Parker; L. E.; Susan Smith; Bill
Wolfe; Nancy Alford. And a Thank-you to our patrons John Clover; Marcus Gwinnee; and Mae Toms.

Thank-You!
Sincerely,
Valerie Lynn Mills
